Robbie Nolan.

Robbie is a passionate entrepreneur, startup evangelist and whiskey connoisseur. He heads up project management at Summit Web, helping build amazing websites for our valued customers. In his free time Robbie likes to do reviews on the top whiskies of the world through his blog and youtube channel.

Sean (Winston) Mann.

Sean began his career as a music journalist but found his niche in the world of Web Development and SEO marketing. As Account Manager, he now uses his passion for these specialised areas to engineer tailored Websites and targeted SEO campaigns. An avid lover of all things skateboarding and languages, Sean spends his free time injuring himself and honing his Spanish.
