

Pre-Paid Funerals

Pre-paid plans

Many people like to arrange funerals well ahead of time. They decide what they want, the price is set, and payment is lodged with a Government approved trustee. This guarantees that there will be no more to pay, no matter when the funeral is provided in the future, hence removing the burden of a difficult task from loved ones, who are left behind.

- Taxation and Pension Benefits.
- Peace of mind for you and your family.
- Membership is not restricted by age or health.
- The contract price is fixed and not affected by inflation.
- Your money is secured by the accredited Funeral Plan Management an Australian Company.

Talk to us first

Our staff are available to discuss your individual requirements and help select the best plan to suit your needs. You may also request more information by return telephone call or e-mail about prepaid information via our contact page. We also offer the option for you to pay by installments.