Joseph Medcalf's dedicated staff is available 24 hours a day, every day of the year to help you through one of the most difficult times of your life. Our caring and understanding professionals will meet with you in the comfort of your own home, or invite you into our private offices to help you make the decisions necessary for a Funeral service to reflect your loved one's wishes.

Robert Dungay

My name is Robert Dungay, Robbie to my work colleagues and the community of Redfern. I have been working for Joseph Medcalf for the last sixteen years, at this point the longest serving employee. Over those years I have seen dramatic changes within the local business area and in particular the business of Joseph Medcalf.

Coming to work for Joseph Medcalf was a turning point in my life. It has given me the opportunity to work together and support many of our community at a time in their life when they are looking for guidance after the loss of a loved one. I am very proud of being a part of the Joseph Medcalf team and even after all these years look forward to what each day brings.

Staff

Joseph Medcalf Funeral Services maintains a full complement of staff to attend each funeral service. Integrity, understanding and a desire to help those in time of need are important qualities of all our employees. We maintain a full complement of staff for administration duties and to attend each funeral service. Any member of staff is able to assist you if required. Please feel free to approach any of our staff. They will be pleased to help you.

The Joseph Medcalf Tradition

Joseph Medcalf Funeral Services has served Redfern & Belmore (Sydney) and surrounding areas since 1880.

We have provided local residents with quality, caring funerals for a solid 125 years.

My name is Cody Hambly and I am a Funeral Director and Manager at Joseph Medcalf Funerals.

After completing a degree to enter the Australian Federal Police I took a part time job at Joseph Medcalf. I soon found that working with families and helping people through a very emotional and difficult time in their lives was extremely rewarding.

I have grown up in the local area and consider it a privilege to be in a position to assist other local families during their time of grief.

At Joseph Medcalf I have found that the smallest detail can make a huge difference to people when saying goodbye to a loved one, and am proud to work for a family owned business that is in the business of helping families.
