Our History

Founded in 1983 by Pierre Joubert, The Diamond Club is a family owned and operated business, which has gained an enviable reputation over the years for delivering diamonds of an exceptional standard, and outstanding customer service.

As an international diamond brokerage, we have extensive affiliations with diamond mines and cutters in all the world's major diamond producing countries. And, because we buy our diamonds direct, we can offer them at significantly reduced prices to our clients.

When you deal with The Diamond Club, you are not only dealing with a diamond importer – but a valuator and manufacturer as well. We have a full-time valuator on staff, and can custom design and manufacture all types of gold and platinum jewellery – from the simple and traditional, to the unique.
