Funeral Directors

Carol & Terry Crawford Funeral Services is a locally owned and operated funeral home with a strong emphasis on support and assistance for families.

Many people in Geelong will already know owners Terry and Carol Crawford through the years of funeral care they have offered to local families.

Set within a hectare of tranquil gardens, Carol & Terry Crawford Funeral Services has created a warm and comfortable atmosphere for bereaved family and friends.

A beautifully appointed chapel and private areas feature uninterrupted views across Corio Bay to the You Yangs.

At Carol & Terry Crawford Funeral Services the Chapel has an indoor seating capacity of 110 with further standing room for another 40.

For larger services an indoor/ outdoor area which includes LCD screens and speakers can accommodate more people.

Along with our beautiful gardens, gazebo, and large carpark our facilities provide a warm, relaxed environment to help dispell the apprehension quite often associated with funerals.

In the near future the completion of a designated building for catering purposes will fully compliment our existing facilities.

The experience of grief can be overwhelming and often confusing, particularly in the early weeks and months following a significant loss or change.

Grief reactions can affect our emotions, behaviour and health. These reactions can feel extremely chaotic and can contribute to a sense of losing control. Whilst these reactions may feel extreme and chaotic, they are usually a normal reaction to a significant loss and will subside over time as the person learns to integrate the loss into their life.

However, sometimes intervention is required and recognizing and perhaps understanding what is being experienced may alleviate some of the stress related to grief.

Bereavement support is available to all family members following a death if required, via phone calls or visits. This support is part of our service and therefore there is no charge.

We offer continuing support and advice to those recently or not so recently bereaved.
