

Funeral directors - what do we do?

The job of the Funeral Director is to make the arranging of the funeral as easy and stress free as possible.

Coping with grief and the loss of a loved one is never easy. C G Moody & Daughter Funeral Directors can support you through a variety of emotions as you recollect fond memories of your relationship together. Funeral in a professional manner.

- 24 hour availability of staff
- Personal consultation with the family
- Organising a cemetery or crematorium of your choice.
- Church or chapel arrangements or the venue of your choice.
- Registration of death with the Registrar of Births, Deaths and Marriages.
- Consulting with clergy minister or celebrant.

- Placement of newspaper obituary and death notices
- Medical certification and dispatch to authorities.
- Private family viewing facilities.
- Prestigious, modern fleet of hearses or other funeral vehicles by arrangement.
- Flowers organised with a range of florists or by our in house florist.
- Collection and return of floral tribute cards.
- Recorded music and/or musician/s of your choice.
- Memorial Attendance Books for friends and family to sign.
- Preparation of deceased for viewing.
- Embalming by qualified personnel (if required).
- Mourning stationery - i.e. recital sheets, cards, etc.
- Recording of services and or LIVE streaming via the internet.
- Referral to grief support if requested.
- After funeral refreshments, catering by requested.