

Lame Dog Chiropractor Veterinary Clinics

Chiropractic for domestic animals ABM---- Animal Biomechanical Medicine

ABM uses techniques for animals taken from Chiro and Osteo.

It is the identification of dysfunction in the animal and treatment to return this to normal.

Animals may suffer back and neck pain and stiffness, irregular gait and lameness from injuries and traumas sometimes causing difficulties climbing steps or jumping onto the couch or into the car.

Just as humans suffer so do our pets and we need to look after them.
