

Syndal Drafting Services

Building Design & Drafting Services

Survey Drafting

The world is moving towards a more mobile workforce, with email and cloud computing becoming essential tools for the modern surveying business.

Syndal Drafting Services is leading the way in outsourced survey drafting for the next generation of Australian surveyors.

When you choose Syndal Drafting Services, you're getting an AutoCAD Certified Professional[®] survey draftsman, with over a decade of local experience in the surveying industry.

(What is an AutoCAD Certified Professional? (PDF, 142kb))

Benefits of outsourcing

Getting a new draftee set up in your office (new software licenses, computer, desk etc) can be an expensive and time-consuming process.

When you use Syndal Drafting Services, you're getting an experienced survey drafting professional, ready to 'hit the ground running'.

Outsourcing requires no superannuation payments, leave entitlements, sick pay or maternity leave.

We work on a flat hourly rate, and yes, we're available over weekends and public holidays!

Quality Assurance

Syndal Drafting Services has stringent QA and error-checking procedures in place, and will always ensure that plans are produced with the highest quality.

Any potential errors in the original data are brought to the attention of our clients.

We believe that presentation is of highest importance and aim to produce "visually appealing plans with the highest accuracy".

B2B Drafting - working with your business

We're proud to be amongst the leaders in the growing industry of outsourced CAD services. Our drafting services are available to absolutely anyone, and we service every corner of Australia.

No job too big or too small. (such a cliché isn't it?)

We provide drafting services for businesses including:

- underground service locators
- architects
- land developers
- commercial builders
- fencing builders
- decking/patio builders
- fire protection and related building services
- civil construction
- tradespeople
- interior design
- events management

Want to give your customers that extra level of professionalism by delivering an accurate, well-presented plan?

Let us show you what we can do.

Benefits of outsourcing

Outsourcing takes the financial burden off growing businesses, with no requirement for superannuation payments, leave entitlements, sick pay or maternity leave.