Our Visionary Mission

We know that integrity, values, and compassion are essential to the funeral service industry, but understanding the core of these principles and our community are the fabric of our foundation.

Serenity Funeral Services was created to provide comprehensive funeral services and cremations. We understand that this can be a stressful time, We will provide your family peace of mind and comfort now and in the future.

Welcome

When you choose Serenity Funerals, you will know that it is run by the same owners that your family has trusted to deliver quality services, over the years. The basis of these decisions, affect the individualised and personalised services that our funeral services offer. At Serenity Funeral Services, we tailor these services to meet our customised clients' needs. We believe it's the little things that matter. From placing Personal items in a coffin, to playing favourite music at the funeral service. Your involvement is encouraged and welcomed at every step of the planning.

We understand that planning a funeral for a loved one is in itself an act of love. For us to have the privilege to help you carry out that act of love to your precise wishes are exceptionally special. So much so, that we consider our role not as an occupation, but a vocation. We are as a proud Australian, family operated business, We also play a major role in our community through sponsorship and involvement in youth mentoring programs. We are dedicated to our business, and to you, our clients.

Cremation Funeral Services from Caring Funeral Directors

The loss of a loved one is a difficult time. The funeral directors from Serenity Funerals will walk you through the process involved with a cremation funeral service and make all the arrangements for you.

A Serenity Funerals' funeral director will make sure that the cremation service is tailored to your families' and your loved ones' personal taste and requirements. We can assist with the purchase of a memorial site for the ashes to be placed or make arrangement for a scattering of the ashes at the desired location.
