SERVICES

Free Quotes

Call us or email us with your details and accurate dimensions of the area you would like painted and we can get back to you with an obligation free quote.

Colour Consults

If you're not sure of the best colours to use or that would go with your existing fittings, ask us for advice. With many years of experience we understand which colours work best together and how to get the best results.

Spraying

At Esthetic Solutions we are always up to date with the best methods in paint application and products. If you have some fittings or surfaces such as fences and trims that require spraying rather than brushing we can provide these services for you. If your not sure just ask if your project would be best bushed, rolled or sprayed.

Product Specialists

If you have a certain PMS colour, a swatch or a paint colour you have chosen we can match any colour using high quality Dulux and solver paints. We also use a water based enamel for non toxic painting of trims and high sheen areas.

Interior / Exterior

Do you have a large commercial building or factory? Maybe a house or unit? We can paint all kinds of surfaces from roofs to floors and walls, interior or exteriors. If you have weatherboard, brick or rendered walls we can paint these for you.

Contracting

Our team has been contracting for large and small projects for many years. We have loads of experience in project managing large developement sites and working with developers and tradesmen.

Esthetic Solutions - Quality Painting

Esthetic Solutions is a quality Painting Service for Melbourne, South Eastern Suburbs and the Mornington Peninsula Victoria. If you need your walls and ceiling painted in a residential area, or have a new or old commercial building that needs to look clean and inviting, give us a call for an obligation free quote.

At Esthetic Painting we pride ourselves on the quality and professional service we provide in the paint industry. With years of experience in Australia and overseas the team at Esthetic Solutions Painting can guide you to a result you never thought possible.
