

Jimbaran Restaurants

Greetings from Jimbaran

Exquisite authentic Indonesian cuisines, exotic Balinese décor, efficient and friendly service – these phrases pretty much describe Jimbaran, the Sydney-based award-winning Indonesian restaurant that has welcome thousands of customers since it first open its doors in 2003.

Family-owned, Jimbaran has garnered rave reviews from the Sydney Morning Herald, listed on the Sydney's Good Food Guide and filmed on Food Safari.

Jimbaran's ala carte and banquet menus cater to diners for different occasions. If you're coming for a corporate function, the modern formal dining room is ideal. But if you're looking for a more laidback dining experience, why not opt for a spot in the covered Balinese style courtyard? So whether you're here for a casual lunch, a business dinner or a large family gathering, Jimbaran has the right offerings in the right ambiance just for you.

Satisfy your palate with our wide selection of traditional Indonesian dishes specially prepared using the finest, freshest ingredients and aromatic spices. Visit us for an unforgettable dining experience.

The Story of Jimbaran

Those familiar with Bali will recognise the name Jimbaran instantly. The name of a beautiful bay in the renowned island, it is synonymous with fabulous seafood, calm waters and breathtaking sunsets.

Here at Jimbaran Restaurant in Sydney, we try to recreate the feel of the real Jimbaran by providing the finest authentic Indonesian food that is painstakingly prepared in various traditional styles of cooking and presented in colourful arrays. The appearance, texture, taste and fragrance of the myriad dishes will delight any Indonesian food lover.

Jimbaran is not just about flavours and tastes, though. It is also about experiencing Bali without leaving Australian soil. The Balinese artworks proudly displayed, the cosy décor, the soothing music and the warmth and friendliness exuded by our staff all bear the hallmarks of Indonesian culture and hospitality.

Our Master Chef

Is a self-taught chef who concocts her scrumptious dishes using family recipes with a modern twist. With the help of her son and a trained chef, she has kept long hours in the kitchen to conjure up some of the best Indonesian cuisine, satisfying even the most demanding palates.

Don't just take our word for it. Have a real taste of Jimbaran. Drop by our restaurant for a dine-in or have a take-away. It's a culinary experience you'll want to enjoy again.
