

Flying Domestics & Maid Perfect Home Help Agencies Home Cleaners

About Us

Life's messy! Let us take away some of the pressure

The house cleaners we introduce will provide cleaning services in and around the home that due to time constraints, you cannot do yourself. We specialise in affordable domestic home cleaning because we understand how important your home is to you.

We aim to delight – we want you to walk through your door and smile when you realise that a cleaner from Flying Domestics has been there that day and cleaned your house. It's spotless, tidy and simply wonderful to return home to.

Our agency will make your life easier – for example, not only will your housekeeper clean, she can also iron, launder, strip and remake beds and carry out many other domestic chores.

Established in 1967, and boasting 50 years of experience introducing professional cleaners, Flying Domestics is Perth's longest established housekeeper recruitment agency, proudly West Australian owned and operated since the first day.

We are people too – which is why our office staff are on the phone, all day every day, responding to your needs and providing the highest level of personal attention and service. We are transparent and honest in all our dealings – no vouchers or fixed contracts – you simply pay for the hours that are worked.
