Pointers in Hiring The Best Tiler

If you are not one for DIY or simply do not have enough time to take on your tiling project alone, the best solution would be to hire a professional tiler to complete the job for you.

- ✓ Asking around your friends or family should always be the first point of call as recommendation from people you trust is worth more for your piece of mind than hand picking a number from the phone book.
- ✓ If you have asked around the people you know and are still at a loss as to hiring a tiler, the next step would be looking online for a reputable tiler working in your area.
- ✓ Once you have compiled a list of tilers from your area, give each and every one a call to get quotes for the job. Prices may vary dramatically so it's a good idea even if it is a little bit time consuming.
- ✓ Once you've decided on your tiler, invite him into your home to have a look at the area that requires tiling to give him an idea of the size of the job. This will enable him to give you rough time scale as to how long the job will take to complete and, of course, the cost.
- ✓ Finally, if you are the one purchasing the tiles, make sure you buy enough to complete the whole job. There is nothing worse than hiring someone to take away the stress of tiling for you and then having to rush around collecting more tiles from your supplier.
