

How to Search for the Best Painter

So you are ready to move forward with your painting project and you have decided to start looking for a professional house painter to do the work.

Starting the Search

There are several ways to begin your search for a professional house painter.

The Internet: One of the most common way people look or search for services and products. Most reputable house painters will encourage their customers to post their experience on-line so other potential customers will feel comfortable using their services

Word of mouth: It is also one of the most cost-effective ways for a painter to generate new business so it is always in his / her best interest to deliver quality work at a reasonable price with a willingness to stand behind their work and a track record of doing so.

References: A good rule of thumb is to ask for a complete list of customers dating back as far as possible and to do your own random calling or drive by. We always give our customers a complete list of previous customers.

The Estimate: Most estimate considerations should include the scope of work. Each estimate should include similar language as to what is included and what is excluded. Types of material should also be discussed and included in any estimate. Again, compare your quotes to verify that each painter is using similar products.

Warranty information: How long does the painter plan on standing behind their work? What does the warranty include? Verify customers that have used the warranty. Warranties beyond 5 years should be considered more marketing than reality. Finally, the high, middle, low question.
