

Fox Mowing & Gardening (Dandenong)-Lawn Cutting & Garden Maintenance - Rowville

Why Choose our Lawn Mowing and Gardening Services

Fox mowing is made up of passionate lawn and garden maintenance professionals with decades of experience under their belts. When you engage our services you know that you're dealing with local operators. All our people live in the areas they serve, so they are locals serving locals. They know the lay of the land and what people living in their area actually like and want. When you get Fox to do the job, you know you're supporting your local economy too, so whilst we are a growing company, you really are supporting a local business, just like any other city or country-based business. All our people go through thorough police checks and we are fully and comprehensively insured for the services they perform, so you never need to worry if they break something or hurt themselves that you might find yourself in a bad situation. We're covered and you're covered. We guarantee our service is of the highest quality and conforms to the standards of industry best practice.

With Fox you know that you and your garden are in safe hands.

Call Fox Mowing & Gardening today at 0419 235 743 and they can do a lot of other stuff too to get your garden looking, and feeling, its best!
