

Integrity Funerals Funeral Directors

Some of the funeral services we provide include:

- Advice and assistance on any questions you may have in planning a funeral. We are available for consultation 7 days a week.
- Use of chapels for private viewings.
- Trained, caring and professional staff.
- All funeral arrangements and services.
- Personal consultation with family and friends in planning the details of the service.
- Transfer of the deceased to our registered mortuary facilities.
- Liaison with hospital, doctors or coroner.
- Liaison with the cemetery or crematorium of your choice.
- Consultation with the clergy or celebrant.
- Placement of press notices.
- Liaison with clubs or other associations.
- Preparation of the deceased for a viewing.
- Supply of a coffin or casket of choice.
- A memorial book for guests to sign.
- Live or recorded music.
- Video and audio recording of the service as a lasting memory.

Please Contact Us

If you need our assistance with planning a service for a family member or loved one, please call for a chat about your needs. We are here for you 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Personalised Approach to Serving You

Mark and Rhonda Malone have long been helping the local community by getting involved with aged care, churches and local fundraising to assist worthy causes in the area. Integrity Funerals is proud to offer special dispensations to return service personnel through local clubs and associations.

Mark will guide you through each step of planning a funeral. Our funerals are always affordably priced to best suit your needs.

We Are Honoured To Help You

You can make an appointment to meet at our office or we can meet to discuss details in the comfort of your own home.

We understand that losing a loved one is challenging. We would be honoured to help plan and organise the final tribute to your loved one. Please contact us today to speak with our caring staff members.